

Question 1

What term is used to define an individual or a group that has an interest in the decisions or activities of an organization? 1 / 1 point

Stakeholder

Audit specialist

Decision-making manager

Incident response manager

Correct

Question 2

Fill in the blank: The _____ is an example of a security stakeholder who is most interested in protecting the data and assets of an organization. 1 / 1 point

social media manager

operations manager

accounts receivable specialist

in-house graphic designer

Correct

Question 3

Fill in the blank: Security operations managers are primarily responsible for helping to identify and safeguard an organization from _____. 1 / 1 point

security threats

negative social media reviews

failed tax audits

equipment failures

Correct

Question 4

Fill in the blank: Information that is communicated to _____ is considered sensitive. 1 / 1 point

the general public employees regarding social events

an organization's competitors

stakeholders

Correct

Question 5

Fill in the blank: Communications with stakeholders should always be precise, avoid unnecessary technical terms, and _____. 1 / 1 point

have various purposes to maximize time have a clear purpose

include numerous security questions

tell an elaborate story to ensure your point is made

Correct

Question 6

Which of the following is an example of a security event that should be communicated to a stakeholder?

1 / 1 point

Malicious code detected in logs

The resignation of a human resources employee

A tax audit

Incorrect office hours posted on social media

Correct

Question 7

Graphs and charts can be used to create which form of stakeholder report? 1 / 1 point

Visual communications

Text messages

Text-filled documents

Phone calls

Correct

Question 8

An analyst finishes an incident review. Next, they want to clearly communicate meaningful data from their findings. What action can they take to share this information? 1 / 1 point

Ask stakeholders to report their findings

Collaborate with the publicity team to develop a communication strategy

Request that the Chief Technology Officer (CTO) sends a summary email

Use visuals to tell a security story

Correct

Question 9

Fill in the blank: In the field of security, it is important to communicate _____ with care. 1 / 1 point

nonsensitive information

time off requests

sensitive information

publicly available information

Correct

Question 10

Fill in the blank: If a stakeholder fails to respond to an important message you sent them right away, the best approach to reach them is to follow-up with _____. 1 / 1 point

an email to your immediate supervisor

a text message to the stakeholder's manager

an email to the CISO

a phone call or an instant message

Correct